The SpeakEASY program is for
• U of M faculty members (UMFA)
• Non-UMFA members teaching U of M credit-courses

WHAT IT IS
• A confidential program with the focus on comprehensibility so that communication is clear
• Individualized one-on-one sessions are based on the requests and concerns of each participant.
• Sessions include optional classroom observations.

LOCATIONS
• Fort Garry Campus: The Centre for the Advancement of Teaching and Learning, 65 Dafoe Road (the former Music Building)
• Bannatyne Campus: in the participant’s office or another location such as the Neil John Maclean Health Sciences Library

SESSIONS
• Sessions are scheduled for 50 minutes, once a week, with no obligation to continue sessions.
• There is no charge; funding is provided by The Centre for the Advancement of Teaching and Learning.
